Goldwater Wins Nebraska, but Nixon Is Strong

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater was the top vote-getter in Tuesday's Nebraska Republican presidential preference primary, where he was the only candidate listed. But he ran into a strong tide of write-in votes for former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and others.

The Arizona senator was hovering near the majority of votes his supporters had predicted before the election. He had just about 50 per cent of the vote while Nixon—who in 1960 had the presidential nomination that Goldwater seeks this year—had about 31 per cent.

Panama Poll Labeled Fraud

Robles' Election Is Hit by Arias

PANAMA (AP) — Government candidate Marco A. Robles is Panama's new president-elect, on the basis of nearly complete returns. The pre-election favorite, ex-President Arnulfo Arias, denounced the outcome as a "most scandalous fraud."

Returns from 1,039 of the 1,144 precincts gave Robles an 11,066-vote margin over Arias—124,830 to 113,764. With seven candidates in the field, Robles got about 40 per cent of the total vote.

Arias claimed official figures released by the Election Tribunal were spurious and said the people would not tolerate violation of their will. He gave no indication of personal action to challenge the results of Sunday's voting.

Col. Bolivar Vallarino, commander of the 3,000-man National Guard, was expected to take decisive action against any violent protests by Arias supporters. Vallarino generally is considered an opponent of Arias. (Continued on Page Two)

Rebel Cincinnati Democrats Gloat

CINCINNATI (AP)—The rebel Democrats who want to depose John A. Wiethe as party chairman in Hamilton County had something to gloat about today.

Richard J. Bird, a precinct executive and former Young Democrats leader, defeated Wiethe by a 23-14 vote Tuesday night for election as chairman of the seventh ward.

To rub salt in the wound, the meeting was held in Wiethe's own home.

The revolt against Wiethe was started two years ago by Democratic officeholders who accused him of poor leadership.

American Medics Feel Safe in Viet Nam Area

WASHINGTON (AP) — In South Viet Nam, where death comes with the stealth and suddenness of a tiger's pounce, the lives of a small group of American doctors are prized by both sides in the guerrilla fighting.

"I didn't feel unsafe," said Dr. Henry C. Savage, a U.S. Public Health Service surgeon just back from duty in a Viet Nam city. "I wouldn't dare walk through Central Park at night, but I drove around Da Nang at night."

None of the doctors serving on the three American medical teams in South Viet Nam "regard themselves as on a hazardous assignment," said Savage.

Savage, 47, father of 10 children and chief of surgery in the Public Health Service hospital in Seattle, told newsmen about his February to May 1 stint in a Viet Nam hospital Tuesday be-rival for the nomination, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, polled a sizable vote in the uncontested West Virginia preference primary.

Rockefeller had no write-in competition because such votes are not counted in West Virginia.

Returns from 1,804 of Nebraska's 2,148 precincts gave Goldwater 56,578 votes. The write-in votes went this way: 35,050 for Nixon, 18,994 for Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, 1,979 for Rockefeller and 1,012 divided among a handful of others.

In West Virginia, with 1,952 of 2,664 precincts reporting, Rockefeller had 83,001, about 65 per cent of the total vote cast in a lackluster Republican gubernatorial primary.

There were no Democratic preference contests in either state, but President Johnson rolled up a substantial write-in in Nebraska. With 1,771 precincts reporting, he had 45,122 votes. Gov. Frank Morrison had 1,873 write-in votes, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy had 1,488 and Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama had 839.

The vote for Gov. Morrison, who also won the Democratic nomination for a third term, apparently was a gesture to boost his vice presidential stock.

Nixon's showing in Nebraska was by far his best in any of the spring primaries. He is not an announced candidate for the nomination but has said he would accept it.

A last-minute drive for write-in votes, spearheaded by former Secretary of the Interior Fred Seaton found fertile ground in a

Rocky Sees Some Hope in Oregon Poll

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller entered the closing phase of his campaign in the Oregon presidential preference primary today reporting he was "encouraged and optimistic" by polls reporting he is gaining ground.

But the governor agreed with most other observers there was no way of telling whether his newly gained momentum would carry him to victory in the voting Friday.

There was 11th-hour activity by committees working for Sen. Barry Goldwater, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Both Rockefeller and Goldwater hoped for a clear-cut victory in Oregon to bolster their chances in California. They met there June 2 in a presidential primary with 86 delegates to the Republican National Convention at stake. Oregon will have only 18 delegates at the nominating convention.

The Rockefeller enthusiasm stemmed from the latest Samuel Lubell poll report, which said the governor had made dramatic gains in the last few days and had to be given at least an outside chance of passing Lodge, long the frontrunner in pre-primary forecasts.

fore heading home.

The work of the American medical teams among the peasants, he said, is "proving our most effective counter-Communist program."

He said the Americans' work is aimed primarily at helping civilians, including thousands caught up and injured in the bloody skirmishes between the Communist Viet Cong and the U.S. backed government forces. But, he said, Viet Cong also slip in for treatment. "They are brought in, these young wounded, but healthy VCs," he said, adding:

"And we feel that this program is an effective instrument because anybody appreciates his life being saved. A VC or anybody appreciates it when he knows that if he had not been treated by some qualified surgeon he would have died."

"FOR HOWEVER LONG" — Defense Secretary Robert McNamara (left) emphasizes to Saigon newsmen that the United States will provide Viet Nam with whatever support is needed "for however long it's required" to defeat the Communists. With McNamara is Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Civil Rights Deal Studied

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders and top Justice Department officials planned to take a final look today at a package of amendments designed to break the civil rights bill stalemate.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in advance of the conference that he was hopeful the proposed changes would lead to action on the House-passed bill.

The key question is whether they will win broad enough support to produce the required two-thirds majority—67 votes if all 100 senators vote—to clamp a time limit on the debate, now in its 54th day.

The amendments were worked out in conferences last week with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and his aides. Dirksen said full accord had been reached, except for the exact language.

The principal amendments would revise the sections banning discrimination by employers and labor unions and by privately owned establishments offering food, lodging and entertainment to the public.

The power of the attorney general to bring injunction suits would be curtailed and states that have their own laws in these fields would be given exclusive jurisdiction over complaints for a limited period.

The next step, Dirksen said, will be to have a conference of all Republican senators as quickly as possible to go over the amendments and find out how much support they have.

"Whether we will have to add to the package remains to be seen," he told newsmen. He said, however, that in discussions he already has had with his GOP colleagues the reaction has been "pretty good."

The Senate held its longest session of the current debate Tuesday, recessing at 12:17 a.m. after meeting for 14 hours and 17 minutes.

Man Is Stabbed, Tossed from Car

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ronald Knierim, 21, was stabbed to death and tossed from a car on a West Side street early today. Police said he had also been dragged on the ground by his assailants.

Police said Knierim had been stabbed "numerous times and dragged a considerable distance."

LBJ Asks NAM To Fight Poverty

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has asked officials of the National Association of Manufacturers to support his end "war on poverty."

The NAM officers met for 30 minutes with Johnson Tuesday and NAM President W. P. Gullander described it as a "very good meeting" in which Johnson did most of the talking.

He asked industry's help in the job-training phase of the anti-poverty campaign, and the NAM officers assured him that corporations are already doing more in that field than generally realized.

Official Vote Count 9,156 In Primary

An official total of 9,156 persons cast ballots in last Tuesday's May primary election, according to the Pickaway County Board of Elections.

Board officials pointed out that the official count of votes in the Spangler-Radcliff race for Democratic nomination for sheriff remains the same as posted last week. Radcliff won by a narrow margin of 36 votes.

It was also pointed out that any candidate declaring a recount of any or all precincts must do so by Monday. This allows five days after the official count has been certified as provided by law.

Total vote posted following the election was 9,372, compared to the official 9,156. The reason for the difference, a board spokesman said, is three precincts, when counting the total number of votes, included the special issue ballots together with the division of Democrats and Republicans.

The official tally on Democrats was counted at 5,904 votes. Republicans cast 3,216.

Single Men Preferred As Draftees

WASHINGTON (AP) — Draft Director Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey has told Congress why he doesn't favor induction of married men.

They have too many outside distractions, Hershey told the House Appropriations Committee in testimony released Tuesday.

Also, he said: "A married man in the grade of private is more expensive than a non-commissioned officer who is single. One of the most expensive is a man with dependents. The trouble you have all the time with people in the service is with those who have dependents."

Hershey said it was his recommendation that led President Johnson to halt drafting of married men. Had this brought on a marriage rush among draftees, he said, he would have been in a predicament.

The commission announced that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover will be heard in the morning followed by CIA Director John A. McCone.

Son, 10, Visits Ailing Dad, 112

ROSWELL, N.M. (AP) — A Roswell hospital patient who says he is 112 years old numbers among his visitors the youngest of his 22 children, Bobby Coronado, 10.

Jesus Coronado, recovering from abdominal surgery, says he was born Christmas Day 1851 in Corpus Christi, Tex. He said he lost his birth certificate in a fire several years ago. Coronado said he had been married three times. He and his present wife, Eudelia, were married in 1930 when she was 15. They have had 17 children. Two are dead.

His physician says Coronado is in better health than most persons at age 60. Until he went to the hospital last week, Coronado worked two or three days a week as a gardener.

For Want of Dime, Man's Life Saved

MACON, Ga. (AP) — Spectators told this story of a man who was lucky he didn't have a dime.

The man drove up to a telephone booth outside a truck stop here Tuesday, but found he didn't have 10 cents for his call.

He went in for change and just as he stepped outside again, a large tractor-trailer rig smashed into the corner of the truck stop, demolishing the telephone booth.

School Program Gets Under Way

Plans are under way for the Circleville School building and improvement program as provided by last Tuesday's bond issue vote.

The Board of Education, meeting in regular session last night, passed the necessary resolution to proceed with the sale of bonds for the $1,986,000 program.

Superintendent Fritz Jacobs indicated no time will be wasted in the preliminary stages of the program. Necessary advertising will be done immediately after the sale of bonds.

James Foley of the architectural firm of Kellam & Foley was present for Tuesday's meeting of the school board. Floor plans of the three new buildings, to be constructed, have already been completed by the firm.

SUPERINTENDENT Jacobs said progress reports will be made from time-to-time on the building program. The school board also repeated its thanks to voters who supported the issue.

The 1964 graduating class of 1964, consisting of 140 seniors, was approved for diplomas by the board, pending satisfactory completion of remaining work.

The following teachers were employed, upon the recommendation of Jacobs, for the 1964-65 term.

Terry Ater, a native of Clarksville, for an eighth grade English position. He is a graduate of Otterbein College and will also serve as freshman basketball coach.

Mrs. Roger Bennington was employed for an elementary post. She is a graduate of Ohio State University and has two years experience. She currently teaches at Whitehall, Columbus.

Miss Dora A. Kisor, currently employed at Darby Twp., was also hired for an elementary position. She will graduate this summer from Ohio University. She has two years teaching experience.

MISS JANE Benbow, Chillicothe, was hired to teach eighth grade English. She is a graduate of Ohio State University.

Resignation of Mrs. Grace Binkley, who has been serving as a cook in the high school cafeteria, was accepted by the board. A replacement is to be announced later.

Using a wheel chair and a device that permits her to write, she is doing cadet teaching at Seattle's Ingraham High School under Kenneth Dulin, a reading-improvement teacher.

"She's meeting life on her terms," Dulin said admiringly. "I have no doubts about her." Jill is scheduled to receive her provisional teaching certificate in June and has applied for a job with four school districts in this area.

"I'm encouraged by the response," she said today. "The wheel chair doesn't seem to

Recognition Due Next Year

Foreign Minister Cites 'Realities'

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—Canadian Foreign Minister Paul Martin has told the North Atlantic allies that Canada may recognize Communist China next year, Canadian sources said today.

Martin reportedly made clear to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's foreign ministers that Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson's government is not going to make any sudden, rash moves. The sources said, however, that Ottawa believes the realities of international politics require a new look at Canada's relations with Red China.

The Canadian government, along with the United States, recognizes the Chinese Nationalist regime on Formosa, which holds China's seat in the United Nations.

The sources said Martin told the opening session of the NATO foreign ministers' meeting Tuesday that Ottawa suspects the Chinese Reds ultimately will be seated in the United Nations and it might be better to look now for a long-range solution that would protect Formosa from Communist takeover.

Meanwhile, Belgium's Paul Henri-Spaak planned to challenge President Charles de Gaulle's campaign to revamp the Atlantic alliance.

Spaak told his NATO colleagues he would call on the French to "spell out just what you think is wrong with NATO—and how it should be righted. Otherwise quit rocking the boat."

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk averted a public clash between Spaak and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville Tuesday at the opening of the ministers' annual spring meeting.

Rusk stopped in Brussels en route to The Hague and reportedly persuaded Spaak to lay aside a speech attacking Gaulle. (Continued on Page Two)

Burglary Suspect Killed by Police

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland Heights police shot and killed one man and seriously wounded another today during an attempted burglary of a radio and television store.

Dead is Elwell Barnett, 24. His companion, Grady Hill Jr., 23, is in serious condition at University Hospital.

Police Chief Edward Gaffney said the two men got into the store by smashing the front window with rocks. The store had been burglarized earlier this month and Detectives Elmer Iafora and Ronald Salcer had been staked out inside.

The detectives yelled for Hill and Barnett to stop, then brought down both men with several shots, Gaffney said.

Worship of Memory

If America stresses only intellectual ability it could become sterile and lopsided. In the last decade or so, Americans have been so busy building schools and universities that they have had little time to speculate on what the world of the 1970s and beyond will be like.

"Education" has become like many other words which are repeated too often and become mere labels whose true meaning is lost in a fog of talk. "Intellectual ability" also is in danger of becoming a meaningless term, whose sole claim to possession is often a good memory, proved in the examination room.

The student who reads only the prescribed books, does "research" for papers among the well-trodden fields, who quotes his authorities, but lacks intellectual curiosity and is afraid of original ideas, might have a good memory and a plodding diligence to earn himself a diploma, but can he be said to have proved his intellectual ability? Obviously, new definitions are needed.

The great artist, Hogarth, writing in his old age 200 years ago, recalled that he was a dullard at school. His exercises were distinguished more for the artistic designs with which he decorated them than for their scholarly content. As he put it, he soon recognized that "any blockhead with a good memory" could come out on top, so he did not try.

This is a reaction of genius, sure of its powers. Hogarth was mighty with pencil and brush, and the acid prose he wrote has also survived.

History abounds with the names of great men who, in their school days, were considered dense and failures. Winston Churchill admits he learned little at school. Abraham Lincoln had one year's schooling but "borrowed and read every book he could lay his hands on." Horatio Nelson gladly left school when he was 12. Thomas A. Edison had practically no schooling.

If these great ones were in school today, would they fail their grades?

The conflict between the "fully-rounded man" and the specialist is an old one. It is the big dilemma of the times, forced on us by concentration on detail at the expense of the whole.

The world of tomorrow might have many who know a lot about a little and even more of those who, as a result of forced feeding on a limited diet, have digested too little, which is worse.

Unless education awakens a vital curiosity for knowledge which lasts as long as life, it ends only in futility.

Rigors of Logic

By John Chamberlain

Arthur Krock, the veteran editorial page political columnist for the New York Times, has just given the child who called attention to the king's nakedness a run for his money.

Quoting an article by Cambridge University Professor Alfred Avins in the 1964 Winter issue of the Cornell Law Review, Mr. Krock cites the ban of the 13th Amendment against "involuntary servitude," which guarantees to "every person the right to refrain from working for any other person." According to Mr. Krock's presentation of Dr. Avins' argument, the "right to refrain from working" covers "barbers, hotel clerks, shoeshine men, sales clerks, waiters and waitresses just as much as fieldhands, cotton-pickers and farm laborers."

In other words, if you run a store or a hotel or a restaurant or a barber shop, you don't have to render service to anybody against your will. The 13th Amendment says so. So we need, not a mere enactment of Congress to force a civil rights public accommodation law, but a new Constitutional Amendment to define an exception to the 13th Amendment.

I don't know where this leaves you, but it leaves me strung up between my humanitarian feelings and my fears that the cause for logical rigor in the use of language is lost to modern man. The truth is that the child who called attention to the king's nakedness could have a field day if he were to go to work for Dr. Avins and Arthur Krock.

For example, what would the child be compelled to say if he were to stack the Draft Act legislation (which President Johnson is going to get rid of in the next "decade") up against the 13th Amendment? The truthful child would have to observe that any young man inducted into our armed forces against his will is not enjoying the protection of a law against "involuntary servitude." I once heard no less a person than Martha Taft, the wife of Senator Bob Taft, make this point at the home of Alice Longworth. As a social creature who did not enjoy emulating the child who said the king was naked, Mrs. Taft hastened to add that she wasn't urging her husband to press the matter in the Senate.

Vivien Kellems, the Connecticut industrialist, once did try to imitate the truthful child. She refused to collect the social security tax on her employees for the government on the ground that nobody could legally compel her to be a tax collector. But the 13th Amendment did not serve to keep the federalists from attaching her bank account.

Then there is the anti-gun law that Senator Tom Dodd is trying to get passed. There is also the New York Sullivan Law. Personally, I don't go for guns, and would just as soon have laws on the books to protect me from gangsters carrying concealed weapons, or to keep an assassin from ordering a rifle through a mail order house.

But my sense of logic tells me that anti-gun laws are unconstitutional. Our ancestors wrote it into the basic law of the land that the right to bear arms shall not be infringed. The child who called attention to the king's nakedness would have to tell Senator Dodd that he should be asking for a new Constitutional Amendment to define exceptions to a right that is 170-odd years old.

The recent anti-prayer decision of the U. S. Supreme Court outraged me for several reasons. One of my objections to the Court decision was based on my concern for language. The First Amendment to the Constitution merely says that Congress shall pass no law establishing a religion or preventing the free exercise thereof. It does not say a single word that contravenes the right of a school board or a state or a municipality to permit voluntary prayers. Where is our protection if we have judges who can't read?

What bothers me in all this is that my temperament is forced to quarrel with my feeling that words should convey meaning. Like Martha Taft, I don't relish being the child who says the king is naked. I don't like being conspicuous. But as a word-man I feel that language should be both used and interpreted logically. After all, it's my living.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

IN THE DAYS when everybody was reading "Little Women," Bronson Alcott, high-living and work-disdaining father of Authoress Louisa May, regularly dropped into the offices of her publisher in Boston, Little, Brown and Company, in search of cash. "Just charge it against Louisa's royalties," he would suggest grandly. Finally, his daughter had to call a halt; thereafter he was given cash only when he could produce a written authorization from her.

Today, framed at Little, Brown is one of Miss Alcott's notes, reading "Please give my pa $50." Pa had thoughtfully crossed out the "$50" and made it read "$100." Nobody knows whether or not he got away with it.

No more stockyard smells in Phoenix! Fastidious cattlemen in the Arizona metropolis now fly helicopters over the yards and spray the cattle with a perfumed deodorizer, mixed with water. The caressing aroma lingers for a full fortnight, and residents living down wind from the stockyards are ecstatic.

It is rumored that one of the richest and most fashionable members of a Fifth Avenue club is so afraid of his domineering wife that he's been divorced from her for eight months and has not yet summoned up sufficient nerve to tell her about it.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Are there any new types of treatment for bursitis? Whenever I get an attack in my shoulder, it completely keeps me from my work as a drill-press operator. I am 27 years old. My friends laugh at me when I have to lay off work, because they say I am as strong as an ox.

H. H., Texas

Dear Mr. H.: Bursitis is no laughing matter. This will be attested by anyone who has ever suffered from it.

Working with a drill press may be the underlying cause for repeated attacks of bursitis, if pulling heavy levers is part of your job.

There are some new treatments for bursitis. Both the old and the new can be wonderfully effective in individual cases. The best form of treatment for you is, of course, dependent on your doctor's judgment.

Some of the available types of treatment are:

- 1) Application of cold compresses.
- 2) Forced rest.
- 3) Injection of the inflamed bursa with cortisone, a local anesthetic, or a combination of the two.
- 4) Small, repeated exposures to X-ray radiations.
- 5) Ultrasonic vibration therapy.
- 6) Surgery for the removal of calcium from the bursa.

The choice of the exact form of treatment often depends on whether the bursitis is acute or chronic. Usually a simple, conservative treatment is chosen first, and is often highly successful.

My husband is 67 years old. For his age he is in good health. However, when he walks rapidly, even to the corner store, he gets sharp cramps in his legs. If he rests for a minute, they disappear. What can cause this?

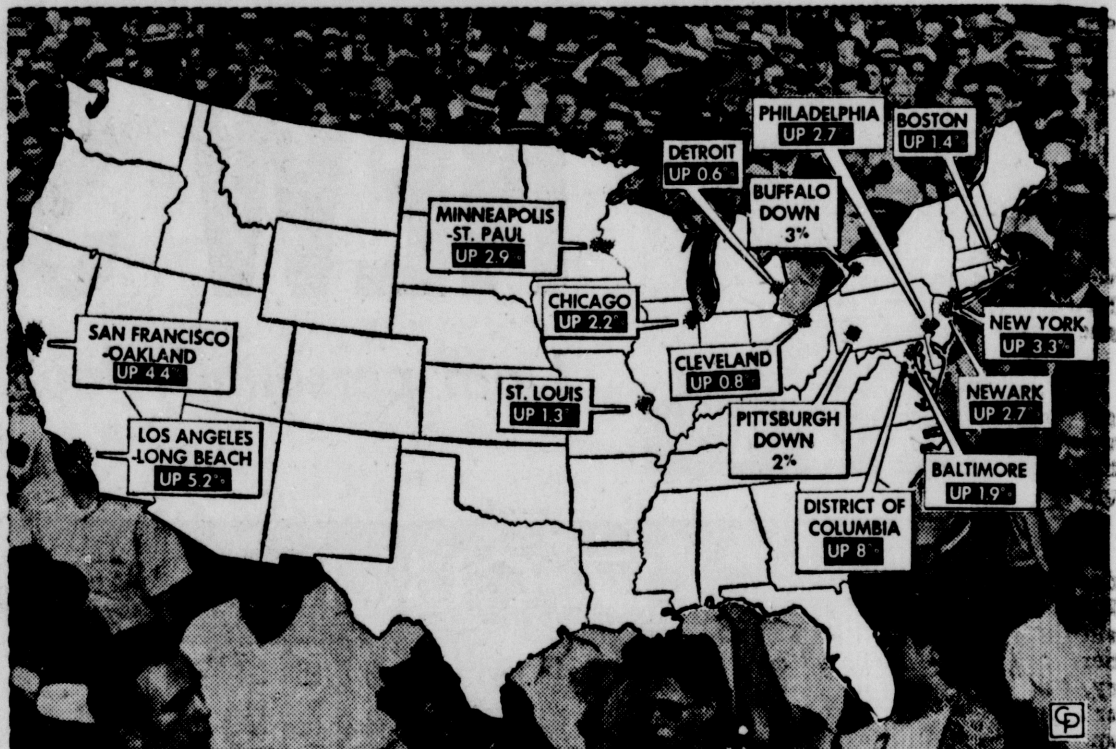

Mrs. S. H. L., Georgia

Dear Mrs. L.: The condition you so accurately describe may well be one that is called "intermittent claudication."

In the elderly, the cause may be in the narrowing of the blood vessels in the legs. This interferes with the normal circulation. Particularly on exertion, the muscles of the leg become "oxygen-poor" and develop a severe spasm. After a moment or two of rest, the painful

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—The more everyone is assured that everything's wonderful, the more some people start worrying about what might happen.

Stock price averages make new highs every little while. So the slightest temporary bobble in the upward line tends to exaggerate fears that a downturn is at hand. Or the very trend of the market itself makes some fear that a speculative boom could be set off, leading to another crash.

Employment increases and so does the total of personal incomes. And that general feeling of well-being generates fears that new wage demands may trigger another wage-price spiral. In a time of little inflation, preachers are heard more and more often warning of the chance that future inflation could do great damage to the economy and hurt more people than it would seem to help.

Profits are well above a year ago. And even profit margins are gaining a little after a long drop. And that sets off warnings lest business be inspired to make the most of a good thing and raise prices—and thus chill the consumer buying desires at home and trading opportunities abroad.

Business is announcing plans to spend a lot more for new plants and equipment. But along with the rejoicing at the stimulus this will give to economic growth, the fear grows that shortly the nation will be plagued once more with a glut of idle industrial capacity. A variation is worry lest the increased production facilities will make competition so keen that some of the new plants will falter, while older ones will be forced to close.

It all seems to shake down to this:

Few can find much in the present state of the economy to worry about. It's near a record height in most of its components. It has few excesses currently visible at might assure future doom. It has problems, like unemployment and poverty and labor-management quarrels over automation. But as a general proposition today's economy is unusually healthy.

And that's where two lines of thought split off. One holds that the economy still isn't healthy enough—because the problems aren't solved—and that it must be stimulated further. The other holds that everything is so good, perched on so high a pinnacle, that the history of business cycles points to a time when dangers will arise and the economy's very exuberance will bring on reaction.

Tale of a Lady and a Scamp

By WICK TEMPLE

(For Hal Boyle)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—This is a story of two blondes—a lady and a scamp.

Both are blue-eyed, lovely and affectionate.

Both are mine.

Ellen is 4, Carol, 3. They have similar gentle facial features, and the same last name. But there the resemblance ends.

Ellen is a lady—soft, discreet, feminine. Carol is tough as a tomcat, loud, funny.

The competition between them is furious. Ellen has taken charge of placing on a chair at night the clothes both shall wear the next morning. Carol always disagrees.

Ellen dresses herself early, then tries to dress Carol, who would rather remain in unbuttoned pajamas.

Ellen tries to brush both heads of hair. Carol likes hers matted.

But the big difference is in how they handle their most precious commodity—candy. Carol wolfs it. Ellen is a saver. She saves every piece until after her sister has finished. Then she enjoys it desperately.

Last month, Ellen launched the Big Tea Party Campaign. The idea was to save every piece of candy until she has enough to hold a tea party for the children in the neighborhood.

She began squirreling her candy in a medium-sized bag atop a cabinet. She saved zealously, denying herself an smiling while Carol ate her candy, then licked her fingers for emphasis.

After two weeks Ellen had enough for a small tea party. The arrangements were made. Ellen was beside herself with pride.

Then the carefully guarded bag disappeared. Ellen ran from the house, wisely seeking her sister. She found a trail of candy wrappers and happy urchins devouring lollipops and gum drops.

At the end of the trail was Carol, with the empty bag.

It was difficult to spank Carol. After all, she was only doing with the candy what was intended. But her sister was heart-broken. The tears flowed.

A large bag of candy brought from the store consoled her, and that was when Ellen proved, she is a lady.

She dumped the new treasure into a shopping bag. The candy barely covered the bottom of the giant sack.

"What about the tea party?" I asked.

"When I get the sack full," she said.

AGING

Q. When do people reach old age?

A. Probably no one has ever lived long enough to answer this question. But seriously, it depends largely upon one's viewpoint. Teenagers think they will be old at twenty-five. Grandmothers at fifty-five may consider sixty-five the mark of old age. Actually, the aging process is gradual and begins at birth. If Father Time could be stopped and the body made to retain the healing and resisting powers of a 10-year-old, you could expect to live hundreds of years.

Q. Do we inherit long life from our parents?

A. There is a good deal of truth in the old saying, "If you want to live to a ripe old age, choose your parents carefully." One way doctors study the effect of heredity on aging is by comparing twins. Identical twins (one-egg twins) tend to show their age at about the same time. They seem to inherit an equal measure of life span. Two-egg twins, who are twins just because they were born at the same time, usually show different age patterns. One twin may age early—the other late.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

End This Affair—Now!

DEAR ABBY: I am involved with a married man. We love each other deeply and have for many years. We know our relationship is wrong, but we have always been very discreet as I wouldn't hurt his family for the world. In the beginning we agreed not to disrupt his family, but now he has started to talk of divorcing his wife to marry me. Abby, I can't let that happen. His wife recently had a change-of-life baby, and she couldn't manage without him. He is financially unable to support two families. How can I make him see that he has to stick with his family without losing him completely? He's the only man I have ever loved.

DISTRESSED
DEAR DISTRESSED: as long as you continue to see him, you are encouraging him to leave his family for you. It is more painful to cut off a puppy's tail an inch at a time. End the relationship in one clean break. It will be painful to both of you, but if you allow this affair to continue on any basis, two innocent families could suffer from your selfishness.

DEAR ABBY: I am 18-years old and I dress like a lady, act like a lady and expect to be treated like one. Recently, while shopping in a supermarket, I pulled my cart into the first aisle when one smart checker snapped his fingers at me and said, "Next aisle!" There was no checker there, so I asked, "Where is the checker?" He barked, "KEEP YOUR SHIRT ON!" The checker never did come, so I was ordered back in the first aisle. As I was emptying my basket, he snapped his fingers at me again and said, "Tax items first, sister." Then he started throwing my food around, so I said, "Don't throw that food — we have to eat it." He asked who I thought I was, and I told him I was a cash customer, that's who I was. Then a man who looked like the manager walked by and said, "Hold down the noise, please, Miss." Do you think I should let it go, or should I go to the higher authorities and demand an apology? This is a big chain store market.

DEMANDS RESPECT
DEAR DEMANDS: No. There must be another market in your neighborhood where the service is more civil and super than at this one. Try it.

DEAR ABBY: My sister and I had a serious falling out four years ago over some lies she spread about me, and I haven't spoken to her since. I just learned that she has an incurable disease and can't last more than a year. Her husband plans to keep it from her as long as possible. Abby, I want to make up with her, and help to make her last months happier by doing what I can for her and her family. I am afraid if I suddenly go to her and offer my friendship, she will suspect the truth about herself. Yet, I don't want her to leave this world thinking I never forgave her. What should I do?

TORN
DEAR TORN: Go to her and offer her your friendship. It is not unusual for relatives to "bury the hatchet" during times of illness.

DEAR ABBY: I feel sorry for the woman whose husband never remembers her birthday. My husband never forgets mine. He wouldn't dare. His is the next day, and he always gets me a nice present so he'll be sure of getting one himself. Sincerely,
ETHEL

CBS To Boycott 'Emmy' Affair

NEW YORK (AP)—Fred W. Friendly, president of Columbia Broadcasting System News, has ordered his staff to boycott the "Emmy Awards" broadcast on May 25 calling them "unprofessional unrealistic and unfair."

In a memorandum to producers of network news and documentary programs, he further recommended "that we even desist from voting in this so-called competition."

Six programs made by CBS News have been nominated in four categories for awards voted by 6,000 members of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

Friendly attacked the categories, nominations and voting practices as they related to programs in the news area.

Cleveland Building Projects Are Idle

CLEVELAND (AP)—Millions of dollars worth of construction projects remained shut down today as the deadlock continued in negotiations between representatives of building trades unions and major contractors.

Mayor Ralph S. Locher said after day-long talks Monday involving both sides and federal mediators that "I saw very little progress." Locher said negotiations were deadlocked and no further talks were scheduled until Thursday, when representatives of labor and management again will meet in the mayor's offices.

Estimates on the number of jobs idled ranged from 10,000 to 20,000. There are some 30,000 building craftsmen in the greater Cleveland area.

souri probably very few Americans ever heard much of him. Yet, he was one of the most powerful men in Congress.

This kind of anonymity is why tourists get disappointed when they visit the Capitol, expecting to see Daniel Websters, and very often find instead in the House or Senate just a handful of men sitting around and ignoring the speaker.

There isn't a Daniel Webster in the place these days. But there are powerful men there like Cannon, who died Monday, and, like Cannon, are not broadly known because of the way they operate, even though they are old timers.

They're the chairmen of powerful committees. They do their work in committee offices, aided by staffs, rather than on the floor of the House or Senate. Their power is not in oratory but in their control over legislation.

Cannon, a Democrat and an autocrat and chairman of the House Appropriations Committee for 20 years, took seriously his job as a watchdog on government spending. He was tough and jealous of his power.

It has been estimated that in his time his committee, after chops and slices and cross-examination, approved and sent up to the full House for a vote as much as a trillion dollars in spending bills.

But that was after Cannon and his crew of Democratic and Republican committee members cut the bills below what Democratic and Republican presidents asked.

Cannon was the oldest member of the House but not the oldest in Congress. That distinction belongs to his senior by one year, 86-year old Sen. Carl Hayden, Arizona Democrat and dean of Congress. He has been there 52 years.

Hayden, as chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, was Cannon's opposite number. But few Americans probably ever heard much of Hayden either, and few ever saw him until President Johnson addressed Congress last Nov. 27

By James Marlow

There, sitting behind the President but looking half asleep, was Hayden and, beside him, 72-year old John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, speaker of the House.

These two men — if Johnson should die — are next in line for the presidency. McCormack would be first.

Another truly powerful congressional figure not widely known is Rep. Wilbur Mills, Arkansas Democrat.

Mills, 54 and in Congress 25 years, is chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, which handles all revenue legislation, particularly income taxes, before the full House can vote on it. This group shapes what the House votes on.

For years now it has bottled up the Kennedy-Johnson program of medical care for the aged. Mills has been the chief bottler.

The most powerful committee in Congress — the House Rules Committee — is headed by the very conservative Rep. Howard W. Smith, an 81-year old Virginia Democrat who has been in Congress 32 years.

This committee can suffocate a bill which has been approved by another committee and, except under unusual conditions, keep it from getting up to the full House for a vote.

In running his show Smith is not distinguished in the public mind for the speeches he makes. But he is certainly distinguished in the congressional mind for the power he holds and wields.

If the question is asked—how come men of the age of Cannon, Hayden and Smith can continue in such positions of great power without challenge — the answer is simple: They got and held their jobs through the seniority system.

Nothing is going to be done to change the system, because all the younger members of Congress know that if they can just last long enough they, too, will become chairmen and nothing will ever be done to dislodge them.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, May 13, the 134th day of 1964. There are 232 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1607, the first permanently successful English colony in America was founded at Jamestown, Va., when three London Company ships landed some 36 miles up the James River. The voyagers immediately selected the site of what is now Jamestown and started building a fort.

On this date In 1788, the grandfather of political organizations in the United States, the Tammany Society of New York, held its first meeting.

In 1809, Napoleon captured Vienna.

In 1915, the United States formally protested the May 7 sinking of the "Lusitania" by a German submarine.

In 1940, Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands and her daughter, Juliana, fled from the Hague to London.

In 1940, British Prime Minister Churchill made his historic statement: "I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears and sweat."

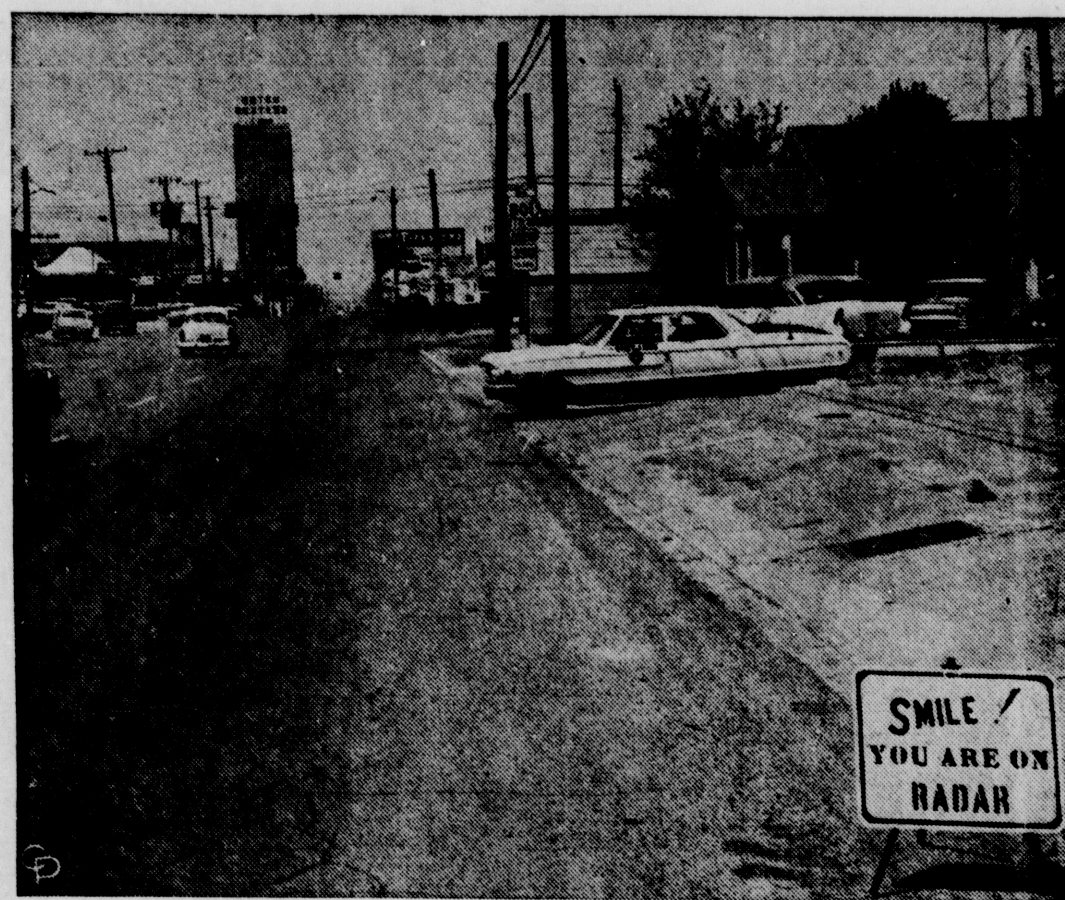

Ten years ago . . . President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed legislation authorizing the United States to join Canada in construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Five years ago . . . Three Air Force F100 Super Sabre jets crashed into the ocean near Myrtle Beach, S.C., killing all three pilots.

One year ago . . . Security measures were relaxed in Birmingham, Ala., with some easing of racial tensions following days of rioting and violence.

CANDID RADAR—Traffic enforcement has a touch of humor in Big Spring, Tex. The sign is near the end of the radar zone, and a driver still is ticketed even if he manages a grin.

Pesticide Control Bill Is Signed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has signed legislation tightening controls over the distribution of pesticides. He said it safeguards the health and lives of all Americans.

He expressed sorrow that Rachel Carson, whose book, Silent Spring, created sentiment for tighter controls over pesticides, could not be present.

"She would have been proud of this bill," Johnson commented.

Miss Carson died April 15.

Most Dangerous Spots On Ohio Highways Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's Highway Safety Department hopes to improve the reputation of some "hot spots" at intersections and stretches of road where accidents have been frequent.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Here is the official U.S. Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather:

A cold front will pass through the state this morning bringing with it cooler air from the north.

Showers and thundershowers were in evidence over the state during the early morning hours as Findlay, Chesapeake and Columbus had brief periods in which thundershowers were recorded.

Temperatures over the state at daybreak were near the 60 mark with Belleaire, Findlay and Youngstown recording 60 and Chesapeake 62.

As the cold front moves eastward, clearing skies will move across the state tonight from the west and temperatures tomorrow will be on the cool side.

A large high pressure area extends from Canada southward to the Gulf of Mexico. This will be the influencing factor of the local weather scene for the next 24 to 36 hours.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECASTS
NORTHERN OHIO—Cooler weather Thursday will be followed by warmer over the weekend. Temperatures Thursday to Monday will average 4-7 degrees above normal high of 69-71 and low 46-51. Precipitation will be generally light averaging one-tenth to two-tenths of an inch in scattered showers tonight and early next week.

SOUTHERN AND CENTRAL OHIO—Temperatures will average 4-8 degrees above normal high of 71-77, low 49-53. Total rainfall will average one-quarter of an inch or less in thundershowers first of week.

Highway patrolmen, who make up the department's enforcement arm, have tackled the job with the blessing of Warren C. (Bud) Nelson, former newspaper editor who is department director.

Two to four cruisers are being used at certain periods at some of the danger spots, Capt. R.H. Shaneyfelt, enforcement officer, explained. Several are being patrolled 24 hours a day.

Shaneyfelt admits this strains patrol resources, but says it will continue until the number of accidents declines.

Not every "hot spot" has the same situation, the patrol has found.

At the intersection which has the dubious distinction of being rated Ohio's most dangerous—U.S. 224 and Ohio 8-91 southeast of Akron—there are construction-relocation problems. There were 41 accidents here in the past year, 26 in 1962.

Immediately west of Columbus on a 2½-mile stretch of U.S. 40 between Georgesville and Rome-Hilliard roads, haste of local people going to or coming from work is blamed. The Georgesville Road-U.S. 40 intersection was the second worst in Ohio for the past year with 39 accidents.

The third, fourth and sixth worst intersections all are in the Dayton area—Needmore Road and U.S. 25, Ohio 741 and U.S. 25 and Neffs Avenue and U.S. 25. The fifth worst—U.S. 20 at U.S. 23 south of Sylvania in the metropolitan area.

These are getting particular patrol attention, Shaneyfelt said, as is a stretch of Ohio 246 going into Toledo. This considered by the department of be the most dangerous section of road in the non-intersection category, followed by U.S. 40 just west of Columbus and Interstate 71 entering and leaving Columbus.

Arkansas To Vote on Gambling

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The swanky casinos in this once-glimmering resort are silent, closed by order of Gov. Orval E. Faubus, but a vigorous campaign is under way to make Arkansas the second state with legal casino gambling.

The Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce is circulating petitions to get a constitutional amendment on the November election ballot legalizing gambling.

The chamber must get 30,800 signatures on the petitions by July 2 to place the issue before the voters. This is expected to be relatively easy. But not the battle that will follow.

The Arkansas Christian Civic Foundation, which represents 2,200 evangelical churches in the state, is mobilizing to defeat the gambling amendment.

"It doesn't have a chance," said Dr. William E. Brown, executive director of the foundation. "We have thousands of volunteers that will be working to keep gambling dead."

And gambling is dead—at least for the present. Faubus clamped on the lid in March after the Arkansas House voted 91-3 to ask Hot Springs authorities to enforce the state's anti-gambling laws.

The gamblers themselves—the men who own the three big casinos in Hot Springs—say they are not taking an active part in the legalization campaign.

They hope that the illegal operation will resume as it has several times over the century that Hot Springs has had gambling. Under this situation, only a small city tax comes out of the more than $50 million annual gambling take.

Legalization would give the gamblers security, but it would impose state and county taxes, and it would provide for as many as seven casinos in Hot Springs, possibly spreading the business thin for the present

Barry Hints GOP Can End Violence

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater says there will be "more violence in our streets" unless the nation gets an administration "that will cool the fires and tempers of violence" in the civil rights struggle.

The Arizona senator, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said Tuesday night at a capacity-crowded rally in Madison Square Garden that Republicans do not "want to see government as the cheerleader for a frightful game of violence, destruction and disobedience."

The turnout of nearly 20,000 in the home state of a rival for the nomination, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, was the largest of Goldwater's campaign. The partisan crowd cheered and applauded wildly throughout.

Goldwater told the crowd, which included some Negroes, that if the precepts of God were observed the differences between whites and blacks would be "wiped off the face of this nation."

He said the oldest law of all was that "you cannot pass a law that will make me like you—or you like me. This is something that can only happen in our hearts."

Amanda Band Social Cancelled

Amanda - Clearcreek's annual Band Social has been cancelled according to an announcement made during a meeting of the Band Boosters.

The social was cancelled due to the construction at the high school. A band uniform drive will substitute for the social.

The benefit drive will be conducted May 18-23. Donations to the fund may be made by mail in care of the school.

During the final meeting of the school year, officers for next year were installed as follows: Mrs. William Downs, president; Harold Bartholomew, vice president; Mrs. Garold Brown, secretary; and Mrs. Wendell Christy, treasurer.

Allan Zinn, band instructor, presented a demonstration of the new tape recorder recently purchased by the Booster Club for the music department.

A report was also given concerning the recent carnival and sock hop.

Serving on the committee for the band uniform drive are Mrs. Joe Miller, Mrs. Carol Julian, Mrs. Kathryn Goodman, Mrs. Dorothy Wasem and Mrs. William Downs.

three big operators. The Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce is for the legalization as any other chamber in the nation might be for an industrial campaign. That's what gambling is here—an industry.

Chamber members were hurt by the shutdown. The tourist trade slacked, conventions canceled. Some 600 persons were put out of work. Only one of the night clubs that operated along with the casinos has remained open.

County Commissioner Poll Recount Sought

GEORGETOWN, Ohio (AP)—The Brown County Board of Election has been asked to recount the ballots to determine the second Democratic candidate for county commissioner.

Two commission posts are at stake in this fall's election. Joseph Holden, Fayetteville businessman and farmer, Tuesday posted money for a recount of the 47 precincts next week. Holden polled 1,096 votes in the primary to 1,098 for incumbent Charles Griffith of Sterling Township and 1,166 for Harry Lucas of Hamersville.

The tail of the great comet of 1843 extended for 200 million miles—far enough to reach from the sun to Mars.

45-Year-Old Studio Falls Before Wrecker's Crew

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Old studios die hard, as the wreckers of the old Educational lot discovered last week.

The history of the studio goes back to 1919 when King Vidor built a barn stage on the property next to what is now Goldwyn Studios in 1925. Educational Film backed by the Hudson's Bay Co., took over the place and created a modern plant for film making.

Jack White, now retired in Palm Springs, converted Educational into a fun factory that produced two-reel comedies with such figures as Larry Semon, Thelma Todd, Al St. John, Lupino Lane and Lloyd Hamilton.

"Shirley Temple was discovered on our lot in the baby burlesque series," White recalled. "Fatty Arbuckle worked for us after the scandal. He was through as an actor, but I changed his name to William Goodrich and he directed comedies for two years at $1,000 a week."

The double feature condemned two-reelers to an untimely death and in the 1930s the studio became the home of Grand National Studios, an offshoot of Educational. Grand National was notable mostly for being the only studio which would dare hire James Cagney after his dispute with Warner Brothers.

Even the Cagney name couldn't make Grand National live up to its title, and the firm lapsed into limbo in 1939. The studio harbored collections of quickie producers until 1946, when railroad tycoon Robert Young started Producers Releasing Corp. It ground out low-budget Westerns and other films primarily to keep Young's Pathes busy.

In 1949, Young made the studio home of Eagle-Lion Films and hired the flamboyant Bryan Foy to head production.

After Eagle-Lion folded, the lot resumed its status as a haven for independents.

It became the home of Ziv Productions, which was absorbed by United Artists. The latter then sold the studio to a development firm for wrecking and rebuilding. Such is progress.

Doneghy Returns To Parole Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes announced Tuesday the re-appointment of Joseph E. Doneghy of Columbus to the remainder of the term to the Pardon and Parole Commission to which he was appointed originally on April 2, 1961.

Doneghy recently left the commission to become coordinator of the law enforcement, court and corrections program for Community Action for Youth in Cleveland.

He has resigned that post and will take office on the commission June 1 for a term expiring April 1, 1967. His salary is $12,000 annually.

The word "tulip" derives from a Turkish word for turban. Early Turkish gardeners hybridized wild species. The spring flower was introduced to Holland, via Austria, in the latter part of the 16th Century.

$7,932,613 Is Total Bid On Road Jobs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Highway Department Tuesday opened bids totaling $7,932,613 on 39 projects, biggest of which was one involving construction of seven bridges on the Columbus East Freeway.

R. W. Wander, Inc. of Worthington offered the apparent low bid of $4,634,303 for the job which also includes paving of 1.5 miles of the freeway (Interstate 70). State estimate for the job was $5.2 million.

State estimates for the 39 projects totaled $8,642,880, more than $700,000 over the apparent low bids.

Other major projects included:

Payette, Franklin, Madison, and Pickaway counties—Furnishing and erecting traffic signs along interstate 71. Apparently low bid by Fasco Fabricators Inc., Dixon, Ohio, $123,055. Estimate, $142,900.

Union County—Paving, widening, and resurfacing 6 mile of Ohio 739 and constructing a bridge over Rush Creek. Apparent low bid by Nelson T. Rahan, Urbana, $101,153. Estimate, $111,700.

Montgomery and Preble counties—Resurfacing 3.9 miles of Ohio 121, 8.9 miles of Ohio 122, and 13.6 miles of Ohio 725. Apparent low bid by Walter L. Folmer, Inc., Hamilton, $135,333. Estimate, $152,540.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co., of Columbus, Ohio, has been granted a preliminary permit by the power commission for a hydroelectric project on the Ohio River at Gallipolis Locks and Dam in Gallia County. Sabin Hopes He Has Curb For Cancer said Monday night he has discovered a virus he hopes may prove to be a cause of cancer in humans.

"It would be too good to be true, but it could be true," the virus specialist told a meeting of physicians and scientists at Mt. Zion Hospital.

"No human cancer has yet been proved to be caused by a virus," Dr. Sabin said. But he and his colleagues, he said, have isolated a virus from the thymus gland of an 18-year-old Cincinnati youth suffering from chest cancer.

Tumor cells were extracted from the gland, he said. The cells lived and reproduced under laboratory conditions. At first, he said, no virus was evident, then, after 20 days of culturing, a virus began to appear in large numbers.

Ashville News Report

Mrs. Art Deal Jr. — YU 3-6111

The Teays Valley Athletic Booster Club met in the high school with Roy Binion, president, presiding.

The group received a check for $200 from the Commercial Point Men's Club. The group expressed gratitude for this donation.

Alva Layton reported the Donkey Baseball Game has been tentatively planned for June 20 at the TV athletic field.

Jack Weikert, reserve coach, requested the group to purchase a decathlon trophy to be rotated each year to the boy with the most outstanding record in his physical fitness program. The plan was approved.

A basketball throw at the 4th of July celebration will be sponsored by the club.

Alva Derr, chairman of the nominating committee, presented a slate of officers for the new year, effective June 1. Listed were: president, Robert Prindle; vice president, Marvin Hicks; secretary, Mrs. Art Deal Jr.; and treasurer, Mrs. Joe Vause.

Prindle expressed regret that he would not be able to accept the office of president. Nominated to this post was Marvin Hicks, with Alva Layton replacing Hicks as vice president.

New trustees serving three year terms are Fritz Kunkle, Alva Derr and Robert Prindle. Still serving for two years are Alva Layton, Joe Haines and Sheldon Roof. Serving for their last year will be Eddie Pritchard, Robert Hoover and Harold Gulick.

Permission was granted the Commercial Point Men's Club to use the club's basketball throw at the Commercial Point Homecoming. Possibilities of a chicken bar-b-que and dance were discussed and tabled. The group was reminded that the club will sponsor a card party May 23 at Ashville Elementary School.

Due to conflicting dates in June, the booster meeting and card party will be rescheduled.

The Ashville Methodist Fellowship Class and families are invited to a weiner roast and class meeting Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellyson, south of Route 316 on Route 104. Assisting the Ellysons will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Snider. The meeting will get under way at 7 p. m. Each family is asked to bring weiners and buns.

The Teays Valley Youth Baseball League met at Ashville Council House May 7, with President Marvin Hicks presiding. A $75 donation was received from the 301st OMS at Lockbourne Air Force Base to be used for purchase of equipment.

The league will bring Flipppo the Clown and his slow-pitch team to TV High School 8:30 p. m. June 2. Admission will be free. An offering will be taken. Flipppo and his team will play the managers of the teams in the TV Youth Baseball League.

The league was advised that a board listing the teams and their standings would be available prior to the start of the season. The purpose is to keep the community advised of standings.

The league purchased eight mosquito league helmets. Individual prizes of $5, $10 and $15 will be awarded to three players who sold the most candy after the general candy sale May 9. Each player will be awarded one free ride at the 4th of July for each 12 candy bars sold.

The next regular meeting will be 7 p. m. May 21 at Ashville Council House.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Irwin attended the Buckeye State Mutual Insurance Assn. 85th Anniversary and Agents Meeting May 8 and 9 at The Imperial House Motel and Seven Nations Restaurant in Dayton.

Ashville Girl Scout Troop 238 met at the Ashville Methodist Church. The meeting opened with Janice Wilson taking attendance and Cindy Speicher dues.

The girls decided to finish their cooking badge by the next meeting except for the last one which the troop will do together. The meeting closed by a game of concentration.

Mrs. Walter Cummins, Route 2, Ashville, lost two fingers on her left hand May 7, when she attempted to back-up on a riding power mower and hit a tree limb which threw her off causing the mower to pass over her. Taken to University Hospital, she is in room 785.

Cheerleaders from the Scioto Walnut and Ashville Schools were selected from 8th grade girls this past week who will be entering Teays Valley High School this fall. At Scioto and Walnut, the girls were picked by the student body. At Ashville they were selected by the TV varsity cheerleading squad. Selected from their respective schools were: Darnette Ross and Donna Haddock from Scioto, with Janet Stuckel as an alternate; Martha Sark and Candy Huffer from Walnut; and Claudia Lough and Sandra Tosca from Ashville.

The Ashville Kiwanis Club had as their guest speaker Juan Augular, a special student at Ohio State University. His home is Mexico City.

His informative speech was titled "Point of View of U.S.-Mexican Foreign Policy." His two favorite expressions were self-determination and non-intervention. Credit for this program went to Don Collins and his committee.

On May 5, in observance of Law Week, guest of the club was a fellow Kiwanian from Circleville, Common Pleas Judge William Ammer.

Lewis Hay was to show his slides of Egypt and the Holy Lands at the May 12 meeting.

Cuban Doctor Successful In Destroying Himself

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—In the very hospital where he had learned how to save lives, a lonely Cuban doctor plunged a scalpel into his heart Tuesday night and won his hours-long fight to die.

Dr. Jose Reposo, 40, a surgeon, began his suicide effort Tuesday afternoon when he slashed himself in the chest and abdomen but inflicted only superficial wounds. Frustrated, he went to a viaduct and prepared to jump 60 feet to the pavement.

Police were summoned. The officers approached the man, who clung to the viaduct railing, his body arched out over the street, his toes wedged in bracing outside the railing.

"Don't jump, George," a patrolman cried. "We want to help you."

Reposo clung to the railing about 15 minutes. While police on the bridge held his attention, firemen spread a net below.

A crowd of about 300 gathered. The onlookers watched in silence as the firemen braced for his jump. He relaxed his grip and dropped, arms spread wide, to the street.

Cheers went up as firemen caught him in the quilted-canvas net.

"He looked surprised to be alive," said Lt. Howard Turner, one of the firemen. "He said, 'Do you have a cigarette?'"

He told police he was "lonely, very lonely."

Reposo chatted with the attendants of the ambulance that took him to Albany Medical Center Hospital, where he was treated for the chest and abdominal cuts.

Reposo sat on an operating table in the emergency room, talking with a surgeon he had trained with in the early 1940s.

He appeared "rational and lucid," a medical center spokesman said.

Suddenly, as the surgeon turned his back, the Cuban snatched a scalpel and stabbed it deep into his chest.

"It was a surgeon's job," the hospital spokesman said. "It rent the heart, opening a big wound that made it easy for doctors to get to the heart and massage it."

He died about two hours later despite the efforts of a score of medical men and nurses to save him.

Reposo, who attended the University of Havana Medical School and was a 1949 graduate of Albany Medical College, was scheduled to begin a residency in internal medicine this summer at the hospital where he died.

The hospital said he was divorced and the father of two. His mother reportedly lives in Cuba.

Portsmouth Family Back After Visit to Russia

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—The world travelers of Portsmouth—Mr. and Mrs. James McKenzie and their son Philip—were settling back to their everyday lives in this Ohio River city today.

With memories of Moscow and several capitals of Europe still vivid—James McKenzie returned to his insurance business, Carole McKenzie resumed her homemaking duties and 14-year-old Philip once again was merely a schoolboy, but with many fascinating adventures to tell his classmates.

The McKenzies arrived at their home Tuesday night—tired and glad to be home—from their two-week trip to the Soviet Union. They arrived in Columbus by jet airliner and were driven the 90 miles to home by relatives.

Their trip was the second part of a goodwill effort that began late last year. The McKenzies entertained a Russian family—Mr. and Mrs. Viktor Pozdnyev and their son and daughter—during the Christmas holidays as a Junior Chamber of Commerce "peace on earth" project.

The McKenzies received a surprise invitation from the Pozdnyevs, through the Soviet government, last month to come to visit them.

The McKenzies, after their arrival at Port Columbus Airport Tuesday night, told newsmen they were very hospitably received by the Pozdnyevs.

"We were glad to renew our brief acquaintance with them," McKenzie said. "They were as warm and hospitable as ever."

McKenzie said they were kept busy in Moscow. "We saw all the points of interest," he said. "The people of Moscow impressed us more than anything else. We were there for May Day, and we were amazed at the large number of people taking part. It was an exciting day for us."

He said, however, that the people as a whole were unfriendly.

"Russia to most of us is a mystery," he said. "I think now we have a better understanding of their way of life."

"We know so little about them that there are many voids in our opinions. If only Americans could get to know the Russians better those voids would be filled. We would have more definite opinions about them and their objects."

McKenzie said he was disappointed when he saw the construction and architecture of Moscow's buildings. "There are buildings in Russia which are supposed to be only three or four years old, but they look like they are 20 or 30 years old."

"The Moscow that is shown in the travel folders and the real Moscow are two different things."

Mrs. McKenzie said they attended a Baptist church service, and it was about the only place they went where they weren't surrounded by Soviet newsmen and officials.

"It was a very interesting experience," she said. "The church was filled to capacity, and many of the people were weeping."

She said, however, that she doesn't feel there is a real spiritual life in Russia. "If there is a God as we know it in Russia," she said, "it probably would be Lenin."

Insecticides Considered Dangerous

A warning against careless use of insecticides was issued today by Dr. Frank R. Moore, Pickaway County Health Commissioner.

"Insecticides are poisonous and when used improperly can be harmful to adults, children and pets," Dr. Moore said. He pointed out that for the backyard gardener an insecticide spray or dust may not be necessary, terming it far more sensible to remove a few bugs or beetles by hand.

Dr. Moore warned against the use of such organic phosphates as Parathion, a compound violently poisonous to humans. In all instances he urged extreme care in handling insecticides and listed the following safety rules:

1. Read the label. Follow instructions for use—observe safety precautions; 2. Keep insecticides out of the reach of children and pets. Don't store insecticides with medicines or foodstuff; 3. Don't switch containers without proper labeling. If possible, keep toxic chemicals in their original, labeled containers—and always keep them tightly closed. If you prepare and use a solution or mixture in another bottle or vessel, make certain it is properly labeled.
4. Avoid inhaling mists, sprays or dusts. When you spray a closed room, don't let any person or pet remain inside, and get out yourself as soon as possible. Ventilate the room before it is again occupied.
5. Spray rooms only after removing or covering foods, dishes, toys and cribs; 6. Do not spill sprays or dusts on your skin or clothing. Should this occur, remove contaminated clothing; wash affected skin areas thoroughly with soap and warm water. Always wash your hands and face thoroughly after using insecticides. Then change to clean clothing. Wash contaminated garments.

Commissioner Power Is Detailed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe ruled today that county commissioners lack authority to approve payment of any claim resulting from personal injury.

The opinion of prosecutor Harlan R. Spies of Tuscarawas County said a special enactment of the legislature is required for such compensation.

In an opinion to Prosecutor Harry Friert of Lucas County, Saxbe said a hospital administrator cannot authorize surgery upon a county hospital patient who is unable to give consent because of advanced age.

The opinion said legal proceedings would be necessary to appoint the hospital administrator as a guardian to give operating permission.

5 Youngstown Vice Figures Face Penalty

CLEVELAND (AP)—Five Youngstown gambling figures pleaded guilty Tuesday in U.S. District Court to filing false income tax returns or trying to dodge the government tax on their pinball machine operations in Struthers.

Sentencing will probably be in two weeks, according to Treasury Agent John D. Relic. The five defendants include two sets of brothers, the Alexanders and Carabbias, who jointly controlled the pinball operations.

Nicholas Alexander, 46, pleaded guilty before Judge Ben C. Green to charges of filing false partnership tax returns for the Alexander Distributing Co. for 1957 and 1958.

Charles Carabbia, 42, his brother, Orlando, 36, along with Elias Alexander, 36, and his brother, Joseph, 49, pleaded guilty to conspiracy to defraud the government by evading the correct earnings and tax from their gambling operations.

All were released on bond pending a pre-sentence report from the probation department. The cleanup on Youngstown gambling is the result of an 18-month investigation by the U.S. Justice Department, the Internal Revenue Service and the FBI.

Two other defendants, Ronald Carabbia, 34, brother of Charles and Orlando, and Mrs. Charles Carabbia, 37, were not in court today but may later pleaded guilty, Relic said. Ronald is charged with failing to file income tax returns for 1959 and 1960. Mrs. Carabbia has been charged on nine counts of tax violations.

All were indicted last year.

Circleville Thinlies Win 5 Events; Place 2nd in SCOL

By STEVE JONES

The Circleville High School thinclads, paced by Jim Wood, garnered the most first place finishes in the South Central Ohio League track meet yesterday at Greenfield, but Wilmington successfully defended its league championship.

The depth-laden Hurricane had tallied 62 points by the end of the meet, compared to 51 for second place Circleville.

Pleasant View edged Washington C. H. for third place honors, with 36 points, while the Blue Lions had 33. In fifth was Greenfield McClain with 30, Franklin Heights had 14, Hillsboro scored 12 and Miami Trace finished with two.

The Tigers won four of the events outright and tied for first in a fifth. For the entire meet they had 13 places.

But the Hurricane placed contestants 19 times to garner the majority of the points although they finished first in only the mile relay and the 440-yard dash.

CIRCLEVILLE'S Jim Wood was the star of the meet. He established two records in the hurdle events and won the 220-yard dash.

It was the first time he has competed in the dash this year.

On the McClain cinders — a good track but soft and a little slow — he easily outdistanced the field in a time of 15.0

Vikings Win Pre-District Dual Meet

The Teays Valley cinder team won its final meet before the sectional and district test, edging Reynoldsburg, 66-52.

Mike Seymour paced the Viking effort, taking first in the broad jump, the high and low hurdles and tying with teammate Denver Henson for first in the 100-yard dash.

The winners came in first in eight of the 14 events took five seconds and eight third place finishes.

In the pole vault John Smith, set a new field record, clearing 1-foot one-inch.

High Jump — Gibson (R), Burkhardt (TV), Wills (TV), 5-feet 8-inches.

Shot Put — Thompson (TV), Harrington (R), Bundy (R), 42-feet 8-inches.

Can Willie Mays Hit .400?

NEW YORK (AP)—The odds against Willie Mays hitting .400 this year are about 400-to-1 but it is surprising how many knowledgeable baseball people think the superb center fielder of the San Francisco Giants might accomplish the seemingly impossible.

Ted Williams, the last major leaguer to reach that magic pinnacle, has always maintained the .400 figure will be reached again. In a recent interview he picked Mays, Henry Aaron, Al Kaline and Mickey Mantle as those capable of doing it.

"The fellow who hits .400 must get off to a blazing start," said Williams, who batted .406 with the Boston Red Sox in 1941. "Then he must avoid a long batting slump."

"He must get the breaks and he must have speed afoot. You got to get your share of infield hits to keep that average up."

in the high hurdles. His mark erased the old league record of 15.2 held by Larry Hannahs, a former Tiger athlete.

In the low hurdles he bettered his own mark of 20.15 seconds, set last year, with a time of 19.7.

His entry in the 220-yard dash was a surprise move by Tiger coach Jim Lint.

Although pushed hard by Bailey of Wilmington, Wood was in command of the race almost all the way. His time of 22.5 was one-half second off the league record, but established a new high for a Circleville High School performer.

...

IN THE broad jump, the fourth event he was entered in, he failed to qualify.

The other undisputed first place for Circleville came in the pole vault where sophomore Doug Pontious cleared the bar at 11-feet.

Atlanta Chalks Up Its 13th Defeat

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For a while it appeared as if the cellar-dwelling Atlanta Crackers were en route to their third International League victory. But they wound up with their 13th loss.

A two-run ninth inning homer by Earl Robinson gave Rochester a 6-4 victory after the Red Wings had tied the score in the bottom of the eighth. Atlanta led 4-3 after four innings.

In other games, Buffalo beat Richmond 5-4 and Jacksonville defeated Syracuse 2-1. Toronto and Columbus were idle.

the only ones to fall by the wayside last night. In the 880-yard run Courter of Pleasant View edged his teammate Mindigo with a 2:04.8 effort, clipping .2 of a second off the old mark.

The Pleasant View shuhide hurdle relay team knocked a full second off the team record, finishing in 1:02.2. Wilmington was second in that event in 1:02.8 while Circleville finished third in 1:03. All three times were better than the previous record.

The brilliant 880-yard relay team from Washington C. H. edged Wilmington's speedsters to win in 1:34 for a new record. The second place effort of the Hurricane was in 1:34.4, better than the old mark of 1:34.8.

A NUMBER of other record breaking performances were expected but did not materialize at the SCO meet.

Tom Doyle of Greenfield McClain approached records in the shot put and discus with heaves of 49-foot 8 1/4-inches and 136-feet 3-inches respectively.

Wilmington's 440 yard dash pair of Bailey and Scott had consistently bettered the league mark of 52.2 in that event during the season, but Bailey's winning time was .9 of a second off the record.

The 440 mark is held by Bob Owens, a former Circleville High School performer and is the oldest in the league book, dating back to 1939.

Every other mark has been set within the last 11 years.

Circleville athletes own five of the records. George Troutman set the shot record with an effort of 49-feet 11 1/4-inches in 1954. Vern Reichmanis set the mark of 137-feet 6-inches in the discus. Added to this are Wood's marks of yesterday and the ancient record of Owens.

The Tigers now prep for the sectional tomorrow afternoon at Whetstone High School in Columbus. The top three men in each event at the sectional will advance to the district meet Saturday at Worthington.

Discus — Doyle (McC), Smith (C), Johns (WCH), Fletcher (C), Davis (Wil), 136-feet 3-inches.

High Jump — Price (C) and McConaughy (H) tie; Williams (Wil), Kelley (WCH), Smith (C), 5-feet 11-inches.

One of the least surprised by Mays' remarkable early season hitting is Jackie Robinson, a National League batting champ with .342 in 1949.

"A fellow asked me last winter about Mays and I told him that, in my opinion, Willie hadn't yet reached his peak," said the former Brooklyn Dodger star. "I've always felt that Mays had the qualifications to be the next .400 hitter."

Mays has had good starts before but never like this. Two years ago, he had four home runs in his first seven games. But this year 13 of his first 42 hits were home runs.

When Roger Maris of the New York Yankees hit his record 61 home runs in 1961, he did not get No. 13 until his club's 43rd game. Babe Ruth hit his 13th homer in his 39th game when he set the record of 60 in a 154-game season in 1927.

Big Pete May Set Pace In Saturday's Preakness

BALTIMORE (AP)—Big Pete will be the outsider Saturday when six 3-year-old horses take off for a 1 1/2-mile trip around history-steeped Pimlico in the 84th running of the $150,000-added Preakness. That's for certain.

But the star of Mrs. Harriet N. Ball's Stable of Falls Church, Va., who has the blood of class sprinters flowing through his

'M' Boys Of Giants Roll Along

Mays Hitting .478
As Marichal Wins
His Sixth Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Will Willie Mays hit .400? Well, if Juan Marichal wins 30 games, the Say Hey Kid is liable to bat .500.

The San Francisco Giants' torrid twosome continued to ravage the National League Tuesday night, punishing the Houston Colts 6-0.

Mays ran his average to an astronomical .478 with his 12th and 13th homers and a single in five trips. Marichal won his sixth game and trimmed his earned-run average to 1.73 with his second straight shutout.

The Giants' "M" boys are murder by themselves but when thrown against the opposition in combination it's tantamount to a nuclear holocaust.

As for Marichal, the veteran right-hander who won 25 games last year, is 12 days ahead of the pace he set in 1963 when he didn't win his sixth game until May 24. And the season started a week later this year.

For the record the last .400 hitter was Ted Williams in 1941 with .406. The last 30-game winner was Dizzy Dean in 1934 with 30.7. Modern baseball has never had a .400 hitter and 30-game winner on the same club.

In other NL games Tuesday, Milwaukee blanked New York 2-0 behind Hank Fischer's three-hitter; Pittsburgh nipped Cincinnati 3-2 in a four-hour, rain-interrupted marathon; St. Louis topped Philadelphia 4-2 behind Curt Simmons and Chicago nipped Los Angeles 3-2 on Dick Tracewski's ninth inning error.

In American League action, Minnesota routed Chicago 11-1; Baltimore blanked Washington 5-0; Cleveland edged Boston 6-5; Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak and a five-game New York win streak 7-2 and Kansas City whipped Los Angeles 6-2.

Mays' three hits drove in four runs and extended his batting streak to 19 games. After flying out in the first he battered Houston starter Skinny Brown for a solo homer in the third and a two-run shot in the fifth. His seventh inning single also drove in a run.

Marichal allowed just five hits and retired 14 in a row over one stretch while winning his 12th straight over a two-season stretch.

Milwaukee's Fischer faced just 29 batters and got all the runs he needed when rookie Rico Carty crashed his first major league homer against Met starter Alvin Jackson.

Cincinnati's Jim Maloney pitched four perfect innings before rain interrupted the Pirates-Reds game at Pittsburgh. After a 1 1/2-hour wait, play was resumed, and Maloney quickly lost his no-hitter and shutout when Smokey Burgess singled and ex-Red Gene Freese homered to tie it at 2-2.

After another 28 minute delay, the Pirates won it without a hit in the eighth on an error fielder's choice and two walks off Maloney.

Curt Simmons beat the Phils for the 13th time in 15 decisions since they released him solidly built frame, probably will play an important role before the garland of black-eyed susans is thrown over the winner and the imposing woodlawn vase is presented to the winning owner.

Until trainer Bernie Bond announced Tuesday that he definitely would be on hand Thursday morning to pay the $1,000 entry fee on Big Pete, there was some question whether the horses would walk or run the first part of the journey. No trainer wanted to commit his horse to making the early pace and setting up another possible stretch duel between Kentucky Derby winner Northern Dancer and runner-up Hill Rose.

Bond declined today to say whether the son of Degage-Judicious would set the early pace. Not only his breeding but his 10 races, of which he has won seven, indicate that Big Pete runs best at getting out in front and hanging on as long as possible.

As a 2-year-old he won three stakes and in all except one they were front-running victories. He also was close to the early pace before taking the recent Delaware Valley Stakes at Garden State Park in the first time of 1:10 1/5 for six furlongs.

Bond himself doesn't favor racing Big Pete against the Derby's first five finishers—Northern Dancer, Hill Rise, The Scoundrel, Roman Brother and Quadrangle—but said he was acting on instructions of the colt's owner. Big Pete was taken out of the Keeneland yearling sales for $13,000.

With Joe Culmone barging along in front on Big Pete, you can be sure that Willie Shoemaker and Bill Hartack will have to keep their eyes on horses other than their own. Shoemaker rides Hill Rise and Hartack pilots Northern Dancer.

In the Derby, Northern victory in the Derby, the Pimlico program selector has made Dancer broke through a hole at the five-eighths pole and bounded into a lead before Shoemaker could get Hill Rise's long legs churning in pursuit.

Despite the Dancer's neck victory in the Derby, the Pimlico program selector has made Hill Rise the 7-5 choice with Northern Dancer the second choice at 2-1. That was the way they were rated in the Derby. The Scoundrel was quoted at 4-1 today, Roman Brother and Quadrangle at 8-1 and Big Pete at 20-1.

Four of the six will participate in the purse payoff. The winner's share of the $176,700 will be $124,200 with $30,000 going to second, $15,000 to third and $7,500 to fourth. Post time is 4:45 p.m., EST, with television and radio (CBS) scheduled for 4:30-5 p.m.

Jackson Defeats Monroe Unit, 11-0

Jackson trounced Monroe, 11-0, Monday in a Pickaway County League baseball game on the Wildcats' diamond.

The winning pitcher was Meredith O'Dell. He walked one, fanned nine and allowed one hit. Gary Moore was charged with the loss. He walked two, fanned two and gave up 12 hits.

Four years ago but needed eighth-inning help from Roger Craig to do it.

Leading 4-1, Simmons gave up a single to Tony Gonzalez and Danny Cater with one out in the eighth. Craig came on and after "Jus Trandos" double delivered one run the lanky Cardinal retired the side and blanked the Phils in the ninth to save it.

Tracewski fumbled pinch hitter Joey Amalfitano's grounder with two out and the bases loaded in the bottom of the ninth to give Chicago its victory over the stumbling Dodgers.

Views on Television—Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Television's biggest mystery today is being played out behind the cameras. Why did CBS News President Fred W. Friendly decide Tuesday while national balloting was going on, to denounce the industry's "Emmy Awards," primarily on grounds that are obvious and which have been matters of concern for many seasons.

Friendly, who was producer of "CBS Reports" until his elevation only seven weeks ago, says he has been concerned for a long time, about the Emmys' growing importance as the industry's top awards.

"This came home to me again when I saw the ballot and it made absolutely no sense," he said. "I decided that it was important to do something about it, and I did."

Without clearing the matter with his network superiors, he said, he wrote a memorandum to his program producers ordering a boycott of the May 25 awards show, which will be broadcast by rival NBC.

All of Friendly's itemized criticisms are old and familiar.

His two main points were that many award categories are unfair catch-alls for programs often as unlike as chalk and cheese and that many academy members who do the voting have failed to see many, if not most of the nominated programs. This is a situation which has bedeviled the awards committee for years.

Walter Cronkite, a member of Friendly's staff, was elected president of the academy in 1959-60 on a platform of reforming award procedures.

"We did not make a great deal of progress and much remained to be done when I lost hope," he admitted.

ABC television also has announced its withdrawal of support from the Academy. NBC is remaining loyal and well it might. It is stuck contractually to produce a 90-minute awards special in a couple of weeks.

No word has come at this writing that the entire CBS television network will follow Friendly out the academy door. Late Tuesday, in fact, NBC was announcing the names of CBS and ABC stars who, along with NBC performers, would present the statuettes on television's big night.

Kaline Is Benched By Injured Leg

DETROIT (AP)—A badly injured left leg has forced Detroit Tigers outfielder Al Kaline to rest for at least three to four days, and possibly longer.

Kaline, off to one of his worst starts, was hitting .224 with one home run and six runs batted in. He was batting .315 with two homers and 13 RBI at this point last year.

The official announcement before Tuesday night's game with the New York Yankees said that Kaline had been ordered to rest because of an inflamed tendon in the big toe of his left foot.

But Kaline also has a bruised ankle, bruised knee and a pulled muscle—all in his left leg.

Information Of Interest To Veterans

Veterans and their dependents who may have any questions concerning any benefits from the Veterans Administration should bring their questions to James P. Shea, Pickaway County Veterans Service Officer. His office is located in the basement of the County Court House.

According to James P. Shea, Pickaway County Veterans Service Officer, there are many children of deceased servicemen who are losing out on valuable education benefits granted by the federal government because of misunderstanding.

One of five major misunderstandings, or a combination of them, Shea said, seems to keep them from seeking such financial assistance under the War Orphans Education program.

1) The fact that one parent still lives makes some children believe they do not qualify as "orphans". Under the War Orphans Education program, an "orphan" is a child whose veteran-parents is dead as the result of a wound, accident, or illness attributable to military service.

2) The fact that the dead parent had no wartime service makes others believe they are ineligible. If the veteran-parent's death resulted from the performance of duty or from extra-hazardous service during peacetime, the child is eligible.

3) The fact that they are married makes some believe they are no longer "children". Marriage does not affect eligibility. Any son or daughter of a serviceman, whose death is attributable to his service, is eligible for the educational benefits provided he or she is between 18 and 23 years of age. In certain instances there are exceptions to these age limits.

4) The fact the living parents, usually the mother, has remarried and the stepfather has legally adopted them makes some children believe they are ineligible. The marriage of the living parent and the subsequent adoption does not effect the eligibility of the children.

5) The fact that many children do not wish, nor are prepared for education at the college level makes some believe they cannot take advantage of War Orphans Education benefits. Although training for a high school diploma is not permitted, eligible children may take vocational courses and other non-college training that will help them earn a living.

For further information on War Orphans Education benefits, Shea suggests that he be contacted at his office in the basement of the County Court House.

Dread-Filled Period Ends For Parents

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Norvil Lawson family had some dread-filled hours Tuesday afternoon—but everything came out all right.

The hours of anguish began when Lawson went to pick up his five-year-old daughter Terry Lynn after her kindergarten class—and another little girl told him she had gotten into a black car driven by a strange man.

Lawson called police and hurried home to comfort his wife Edna, who became nearly hysterical. Police teams fanned out in the northside area searching for a little girl with a red-and-white checked dress.

Hours passed . . . almost three of them.

Then plainclothes patrolmen William Dehner and Lawrence Jones spotted Terry Lynn playing with another little girl on Pitts Avenue, not far from the kindergarten. They said they had trouble persuading her to enter their car.

Dehner and Jones drove to the Lawsons' home and a tearful welcome for Terry Lynn, who wasn't quite sure what all the fuss was about. She said she got tired of waiting for Daddy and went off with a classmate, looking for him.

Forty years ago, Washington had only one real suburb, Chevy Chase, Md.
